SHOTOVER CRAP GAME

Willis Mount Gets Another Man, This One White.

Evidence Points to a Cold Blooded Murder in a Gambling Den Over a Saloon.

MOUNT HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Willis Nutty, a jockey aged 29, whose home is in New Columbia, Macon county, Illinois, was shot down and almost instantly killed about midnight by Willis Mount in the third story of the Stag saloon, on North Fourth street between Broadway and Jefferson streets. The room in which the murder was committed was a gambling resort, but all the occupants, near one or two had fled when the police arrived. The proprietors of the Stag disclaim all knowledge of its existence.

It has been very difficult to get anything definite about the killing, but so far as can be learned it was a cold-blooded murder. Mount was only recently exonerated on a charge of killing George Jackson, colored, near Ninth and Court streets on September 8, and had since been out of the city.

Nutty had been riding Mr. Wes Flowers' race horse and had been in the city since the beginning of the recent carnival. He was about 29 years old, small and said to be game to the backbone.

A few people along the street heard the two reports of Mount's pistol. Mr. Ike Hollowell, a member of the fire department who was on watch, rushed over and met Mount coming out the door at the foot of the stairs. He asked him who did the shooting and Mount replied he didn't know and went on down the street.

Dr. Adrian Hoyer arrived about the same time. They found young Nutty in the throes of death, with blood all over everything. The room looked like a slaughter house. John Whitnell was about the only one in the room when they arrived, but it is understood Will Bishop was also there and saw the shooting. Nutty was shot in the mouth and in the back, between the shoulders.

The crap table was still there, and some one tried to get it out of the room and thus remove the evidences of the kind of business that led to the tragedy, but the table could not be gotten through the door.

The dice, according to Mr. Hollowell, were on the floor in the blood, not a foot from the dead man's head and Mr. Hollowell picked them up.

Coroner Peal was notified, and had the body moved to Narce & Spaulding's. County Attorney Eugene Graves was notified and secured the statements of some of those alleged to have been there engaged in the game.

Lieutenant Frank Harlan sent officers out after Mount, and he was caught and brought in about 3 o'clock by Officers Potter and Johnson. Lieutenant Harlan asked him if he wanted to make any statement and he said that he did not, adding "You would have done the same thing yourself."

Mount was seen in his cell at the lockup by a reporter and asked for a statement, but he said he had none to make. If he has any defense he did not say that he had.

His victim was quite well known here. He had been boarding at the Commercial house, and was known among many as "En" Nutty, and always registered his name that way, but his name was Willis Nutty. His parents are both dead, but he has quite a number of well known and influential relatives in Illinois, and was a relative of the Shells of Ballard county, Ky.

Immediately after police court this morning County Attorney Eugene Graves held an investigation in Judge Sander's office, as a result of which a warrant was issued against Mount for wilful murder, and he was committed to

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS

Prosecuting Attorney J. M. Gilbert Receives Quick Summons

Mr. J. T. Hassell Dies Suddenly in the Rotunda of the Palmer House.

ATTY GILBERT ILL TWO DAYS

The many friends of City Prosecuting Attorney Jesse M. Gilbert of 506 North Seventh street, were surprised to learn this morning of his sudden death shortly before 7 o'clock. Attorney Gilbert had been in bad health for sometime, but was apparently not feeling any worse today than usual. He had been confined to his bed for the past two days. Neuralgia of the heart was the immediate cause of death.

Yesterday, however, he remarked to a member of his family that he was afraid he would not live much longer. His brother, Mr. J. W. Gilbert, of Murray, was in the city yesterday and spent the day with him. When he left Attorney Gilbert's home shortly after 6 o'clock this morning to return home on the early train, he left his brother to all appearances no worse than he had been.

A sudden attack of heart disease, however, resulted in a quick death. The brother was stopped by telephone before he left the city.

The deceased was one of the best known attorneys in Paducah. He was 42 years old, born in Marshall county, and had spent about twenty years of his life in McCracken county.

He was at one time county school superintendent, and was popular throughout the county. He was elected city prosecuting attorney two years ago, and was still holding the office at the time of his death, but his term ended this year, according to the court of appeals, although he was elected for four years.

The deceased leaves a wife and one daughter, Miss Byrdie Gilbert and several brothers and sisters. The latter are: Messrs. J. W. Gilbert and W. L. Gilbert, of Murray and L. T. Gilbert of McCracken county; Messrs. W. R. Irvin, Wadesboro; Marvin Burnett, Callaway county; Amanda Bowles, Florence Station; Mary Barnett, Olive, Marshall county; Lney Gibson, Marshall county. His parents are dead.

Attorney Gilbert was a member of the Masons and Red Men, and the latter will have charge of his funeral, which takes place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Broadway M. E. church. Burial at Oak Grove. Judge Sanders this morning adjourned court over to meet again Wednesday on account of Attorney Gilbert's death.

Mr. J. T. Hassell, of Dyersburg,

Tenn., for fifteen years a traveling salesman for the E. Rehkopf Co., of Paducah died of apoplexy or heart disease in the rotunda of the Palmer house about 11:45 o'clock last night. He had not complained of being ill, and a short time before he went upstairs to his room to retire. He came in Saturday night.

He came down stairs again soon after going to his room, and after seating himself in a chair in the lobby, suddenly began gasping and attracted the attention of Clerk John Heath, who was on duty at the time.

The young man ran over to him and asked him if he wanted a drink of water or whiskey, and he replied "No, what I want is breath." He then fell forward dead.

Physicians were called but life was extinct. His body was left in the chair where he died until Coroner Peal was notified and arrived to take charge. He had the remains moved to the Ellinger undertaker establishment to be prepared for burial.

Mr. Hassell was one of the best known traveling men coming to Paducah. For many years he had traveled for Rehkopf and had an extensive acquaintance. He was unmarried and leaves several relatives, but no immediate family.

His death was so clearly from natural causes that no inquest was held. The remains will be shipped to Dyersburg for burial.

GUN CLUB SHOOT

IT WILL BEGIN TOMORROW—NO ONE SHOT TODAY.

The annual tournament of the Paducah Gun club takes place tomorrow at Wallace park, and a large crowd is expected.

No one showed up today in response to the challenge of the Starr brothers to shoot any other two amateurs in the country for $100 a man. The Starr brothers have a big reputation as crack shots and no one cared to shoot against them.

Tomorrow most of the men will be in, but today only a few are here.

WED IN METROPOLIS

Metropolis, Ill., Oct. 19.—James M. Reed and Mrs. Josephine Gleun, both of Paducah, were married here this morning at the residence of Justice Thomas Liggett. Justice Liggett performed the ceremony. The couple were accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Gibson of Paducah. The party came to Metropolis this morning on the Fowler and returned this afternoon on the Cowling.

BOYS CLASS DIVIDED.—The working boys class of the Y. M. C. A. will be divided into two grades, one meeting from 7 to 8 and the other from 8 to 9, on Tuesday and Friday evenings. The division will be made tomorrow evening.

TICKETS MADE UP

All Names Will be in by This Evening for Paducah.

Minor Changes Made in the Republican Ticket—Governor Beckham Here.

SOME LATE POLITICAL NOTES

Today is the last day for the filing of names of candidates with County Clerk Charles E. Graham, and by night all names will have to be filed or the candidates will be unable to get on the ballot.

The independent ticket was filed Saturday and the Democratic and Republican tickets will be filed sometime today. There are two independent candidates out, Messrs. L. K. Taylor, for commonwealth attorney, and J. Henry Smith, for city treasurer. Mr. Smith only Saturday decided to run on the independent ticket, seeing the impossibility of having his contest suit settled in time to get his name in as Democratic nominee and has selected for his device a key. His name has been placed on the ballot.

Attorney L. K. Taylor in the Sunday papers published a card saying that he understood that the higher state officials had instructed County Clerk Graham not to place his name on the ballot official, and in order that his name go on, he must file a petition of 400 names with the county clerk and ask his friends to report at Alvey's drug store or McPherson's drug store and sign this petition. County Clerk Graham was seen this morning and said in regard to the statement that he did not know what prompted Attorney Taylor to do such a thing, unless it was simply another scheme to excite sympathy and secure more votes. Clerk Graham declares that Attorney Taylor knew when he published the card that his name was on the ballot pursuant to instructions from the secretary of state. Clerk Graham was very indignant and has prepared a lengthy card which he will publish in answer to the Taylor card.

The list of Republican candidates for city offices will be filed this afternoon. For the major offices there is but one change. Mr. George H. Brown, the well known coal merchant, is made the nominee for city clerk in place of Mr. Will C. Kidd, who declined.

In the aldermanic ticket H. S. Wells the well known lumber manufacturer, is nominated in place of Mr. George Katterjohn. For the council E. W. Berry is substituted for Clay Warden in the First ward; Wm. Short for Harry Hank in the second; H. H. Evans for W. V. Schofield in the Fourth; John Murray for Harry Pixler in the Fifth.

For school trustee, John F. Hall is substituted for Harry Williamson in the Second; H. P. Sighe for James P. Smith in the Third; A. V. Schofield for Raco Dipple and Harry Pixler for John Murray in the Sixth. Mr. Murray and Mr. Pixler simply change places from councilmanic board to school board.

The municipal independent ticket has been filed with the county clerk as first published with the exception of two names.

Instead of J. C. Maret, councilman in the First ward, the name of F. P. Toof was substituted and in the Fifth ward instead of George Shelton for councilman, the name of J. C. Butler was substituted. These were the only changes made. The ticket was placed in the hands of County Clerk Charles Graham Saturday late and will appear on the ticket under the device of an open book representing the statutes of the state of Kentucky, the device selected by the party.

Paducah was quite a political center yesterday. Governor Beckham and Private Secretary Colonel Edward O. Leigh, Judge James Breathitt, of Hopkinsville; Colonel Mott Ayers, of Ful-

TO USE BLOCK SYSTEM

Illinois Central to Begin to Install it at Once.

Will Require About Three Years Time and a Vast Amount of Money.

CHANGES IN I. C. OFFICIALS.

The following dispatch has been sent out of Chicago relative to a "block system" to be established on the I. C.: Chicago, Oct. 17.—Arrangements have been made for the installation of the telegraphic block signal system on all the lines of the Illinois Central. It is estimated that the cost of the improvement will reach $1,000,000. According to the present intentions of the executive officials of the company the entire main line, about 3,000 miles, will be blocked as fast as possible, and it is expected that three years will be consumed in completing the work.

The local officials had not been apprised of this intention of the road, and know nothing about it. It is stated, however, that this will be away with a number of operators and a few dispatchers when completed, but the exact number cannot be estimated. By some it is claimed it will do away with half of the operators and about one third of the dispatchers, but one local official stated that it would not affect either the operators or dispatchers at all. This remains to be seen.

Superintendent A. Philbrick, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, who succeeded Supt. J. O. Bailey here several months ago, has been transferred to the Omaha division, with headquarters at Fort Dodge, Iowa, and Mr. A. H. Egan, superintendent of the Chicago division, has been transferred to Louisville to succeed Mr. Philbrick.

This necessitates changes over the entire system on several divisions, and B. Lilicas, superintendent of the Omaha division, whom Mr. Philbrick succeeds, will be transferred to the Dubuque division with headquarters at Dubuque, and Supt. F. Harriman, of the Dubuque division, will be transferred to the Chicago division to succeed Mr. Egan.

These changes were all made effective on the 16th, but nothing was known of them until Mr. I. G. Rawn, superintendent of transportation, arrived here late Saturday and after a consultation with officials here, ordered the changes made. Mr. Philbrick is still in the city and will not leave before the 23rd. Mr. Egan is now here acquainting himself with the division.

Colonel Bill Howell, of Hopkinsville; Claude Desha, Lexington; Harry G. Tandy, Frankfort; H. R. Kinsolving, of Mt. Sterling; John G. Lovett, of Benton, and J. W. Gilbert, of Murray, were all here.

Governor Beckham and wife and cousin, Miss Mame Smith of Owensboro, arrived from Princeton late Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday, and were guests at the Palmer house. Governor Beckham needed a rest and came here to get it. Today he went to Mayfield to speak.

Albert Schmutz, the candidate of the socialist labor party for governor, will arrive in the city tomorrow evening and address the people of Paducah at 8 o'clock at the city hall. The socialist labor party is not large in Paducah, but has shown quite an increase in the past few years.

Tomorrow is the last chance voters in Paducah will have to register in order to vote in the primaries next year or the regular election the coming November. The polls open at 6 o'clock and close at 9 p. m.

A meeting of the independent ticket promoters will be held at the county court house tonight for a "rally." It is expected that speeches will be made.

CONCERNING STATE BANKS.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 19.—A case that is attracting attention in Kentucky financial circles, involving the payment of franchise taxes to a municipality by a state bank, is to be argued in the United States supreme court tomorrow. The title of the case is the Deposit Bank against the City of Frankfort. The city seeks to enforce the collection of some $6,000 franchise tax alleged to be due it from the Deposit Bank for the years '93 and '94.

The bank resisted this payment and in the Franklin circuit court the city was given judgment, which on appeal was affirmed by the appellate court. The case was sent then on appeal to the United States supreme court, where argument will be heard Tuesday.

Attorneys left for Washington to present the case. In the event the decision is favorable to the city many more cases against banks are to be instituted throughout the state, the present one being in the nature of a test.

The remaining indictment was notified. Sherwell, with the consent of court, went to Ohio some months ago.

One of the women he was alleged to have killed was a negress of Owensboro, Ky.

The Hook will go into Tennessee river tomorrow or Wednesday.

RHEUMATISM

An All the Year Round Disease.

Rheumatism does not come and go with winter time always; in fact some suffer more during the Spring and Summer than at any other season. When the blood is charged with Uric Acid, Alkali and other irritating poisons, then the system is in the right condition for Rheumatism to develop, and an attack is liable to come at any time, Winter or Summer.

Rheumatism, because it attacks different parts of the body, and is sudden or slow in its action, is given various names such as acute and chronic, muscular, articular, inflammatory, neuralgic and sciatic, but it is the same old acid blood that causes all. Some are constant sufferers, while others have only occasional spells of Rheumatism, but either kind is wearing upon the constitution, and in time produces stiffness in the muscles and joints, and sometimes the acids thrown off by the blood settle upon the valves of the heart and ends suddenly and fatally.

It won't do to let Rheumatism run on. It is a dangerous disease, and you can never tell where it is going to strike. Home remedies, plasters, liniments and such things as produce counter-irritation, are soothing and may relieve the pain temporarily, but the polluted, acid blood cannot be reached by external applications.

Rheumatism must be treated through the blood, and no remedy brings such prompt and lasting relief as S. S. S. It attacks the disease in the blood, neutralizes the acids, and removes all irritating poisons and effete matter from the system.

S. S. S. strengthens and enriches the thin acid blood, and, as it circulates through the body, the corroding, gnawing poisons and acid deposits are dislodged and washed out of the muscles and joints, and the sufferer is happily relieved from the discomforts and misery of Rheumatism.

S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, does not contain any Potash or mineral of any kind, and can be taken with safety by old and young.

Rheumatic sufferers who write us about their case will receive valuable aid and helpful advice from our physicians, for which no charge is made. We will mail free our special book on Rheumatism, which is the result of years of practical experience in treating this disease. It contains much interesting information about all kinds of Rheumatism.

THE LEOPARD AND THE FOX.

Find a Man.

The Leopard one day, in the hearing of the Fox, was very loud in the praise of his own beautifully spotted skin. The Fox thereupon told him, that, handsome as he might be, he considered that he himself was yet a great deal handsomer. "Your beauty is of the body," said the Fox, "mine is of the mind."

MORAL.—How much more heavenly and powerful would beauty prove if it were not so frequently impaired by the affection and conceit of the possessor.

TO ENJOIN ISSUE OF BONDS

RED RIVER IRON CO. FILES BILL AGAINST CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 19.—Savage & Daniel, solicitors for the Red River Iron company, has filed a bill in chancery against the mayor and city council of Clarksville and the Tennessee Central Railroad company to enjoin the issuance by the city of Clarksville of $100,000 in bonds to pay what the bill allows to be Clarksville's so-called subscription to the Tennessee Central, or Nashville and Clarksville railroad.

The bill also sets forth quite a number of reasons why the subscription should not be paid. The most serious allegation is that the construction company is getting up the money for the road and being given the bonds of the railroad company at $25,000 or more per mile; that the railroad company has no money or property, and that when completed the road will be insolvent and completely under the control of the holders of the bonds, and the stockholders will have nothing.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Hachee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specialties, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

DUVALL CASE AGAIN

Interesting Legal Contest Over Paducah Engineer's Estate.

His Mother and 'Alleged Wife' Both Trying to Become the Administratrix.

TRIAL TODAY IN INDIANA.

The fate of the now famous case of Flora C. Duvall, alleged widow and administratrix of Reginald Duvall, the Paducah engineer who was killed by a southern freight train last spring in Indiana, and for whose death suits for damages in the sum of $15,000 each have been filed by Flora Duvall, and Mrs. M. E. Duvall, the latter of Paducah, mother of the deceased, will be settled in the Dubois Circuit Court at Jasper, Ind., today when the question of which administratrix shall prevail will be argued.

About three months ago the case took a new phase in the Federal Court in Louisville when the deposition of Flora Duvall, concerning her marriage to Reginald Duvall, was taken, in order to put her on record.

Attorney Matt O'Doherty, representing Mrs. M. E. Duvall, warned Flora Duvall that if she swore she was the wife of Reginald Duvall she would do so at her peril, and that he stood ready to prove that she had never been married to him.

The deposition was taken, however, and will figure in the trial at Jasper today, which promises to be a very bitter legal war. Mrs. M. E. Duvall, who qualified as her son's administratrix in Jefferson county, went to Dubois county a short time ago and filed objections to the application of Flora Duvall for papers of administration, thereby voluntarily making herself a party to the litigation in the Indiana court and subjecting herself to its jurisdiction.

At the same time Mrs. M. E. Duvall has filed a suit in the Jefferson Circuit Court at Louisville, in the capacity of administratrix of Reginald Duvall, against the Southern Railway, Flora C. Duvall and her attorney, Mr. Armstrong, of Indiana, seeking to restrain Attorney Armstrong and his client from prosecuting the suit in Indiana, and the southern railway from paying any money to Flora Duvall as administratrix.

Flora Duvall has answered, setting up her appointment as administratrix by the Dubois Circuit Court. The trial at Jasper will be a very interesting one, in view of the bitter struggle that has been waged between the two claimants, and the allegations that have been made to the effect that Flora Chamberlain was never legally married to Reginald Duvall.

SUES RAILROAD

WIFE OF ENGINEER WELL KNOWN HERE ASKS $25,000.

Emma D. Matthis, executrix of Jan. F. Matthis has filed suit at Louisville against the Illinois Central Railroad company and Columbus Givens for $25,000 damages, alleging that James F. Matthis was an engineer on the defendant's road, and that on May 15, 1903, his engine plunged down an embankment near McHenry, Ky., and he was killed. The plaintiff claims that the accident was caused by the defective condition of the track and by a pile of coal being left on the track at a coaling station near the scene of the wreck. It is stated that Columbus Givens was Superintendent for the Illinois Central at McHenry, and his failure to keep the track clear and in good condition contributed to the accident. Engineer Matthis was well and favorably known in Paducah.

"IT GOES RIGHT TO THE SPOT"

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. J. R. Smith, proprietor Smith House, Tenaha, Tex., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

The Thomas Parker will go out tomorrow into Tennessee river for ties.

A CARD.

Fellow citizens of Paducah: I am a candidate for the office of City Solicitor of Paducah, nominated by the Republican party.

I very much desire to be elected to this office. The Solicitor is an officer who is required to consider and pass upon grave questions of commercial and corporation laws for the protection of the city's interests, to advise the city officers concerning their duties when requested and to attend to its civil business in the Circuit court and Court of Appeals. I feel confident that I can bring to the discharge of the duties of the office as much legal ability as any lawyer at the Paducah bar, but I cannot elect myself and my desire cannot amount to anything unless the all governing power of the people is expressed at the polls by a majority vote in my favor, and I solicit the vote of every citizen of Paducah for this office. As the office is non-political and the discharge of the duties altogether legal, I do not wish to overlook, or slight any person, I ask every citizen to vote for me for solicitor.

I have always assisted in every way that I could to build up and increase the growth and prosperity of Paducah, and will continue to do so whenever opportunity offers. I submit to you my standing as a citizen and a lawyer and trust that I may have your favorable consideration and your support. My attention will be absorbed with business before the McCracken Circuit Court, now in session, until the end of the term, and it will be impossible for me to make a personal canvass; I therefore adopt this means of calling your attention to my candidacy and asking your support.

Very Respectfully,
Sam Houston.

Mind

Impaired and Nerves Shattered

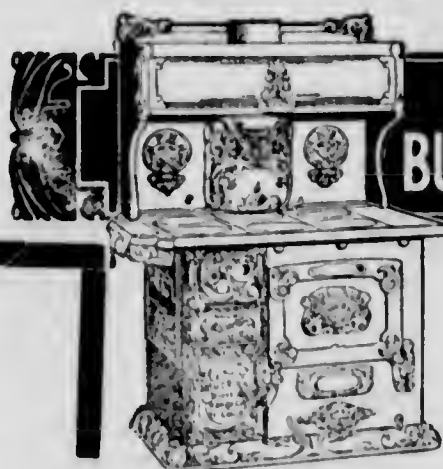

From Excessive Mental Strain.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back My Health.

It is not always severe manual labor that breaks down the health. Mental strain, worry, anxiety, the cares of business or the home, have an equally strong tendency towards undermining the nervous system, upon whose vitality the health of the body depends. When you find yourself unduly fretful, anxious, easily excitable; when your sleep is troubled and you can get no rest; if you have frequent headache, are losing your appetite and are getting thin, you should begin at once a thorough course of treatment with Dr. Miles' Nervine. There is no nerve tonic so good, so sure, so safe. It speedily restores the weakened nerves to healthy action, and builds strength and tissue.

"I was raised on a farm at hard labor, and when I left the farm and began preaching, the change of occupation and excessive study shattered my nerves and impaired my memory. I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and after using two bottles I could see a decided improvement, and I continued until I had used nine bottles, when I considered myself completely cured. That was seven years ago so that I know my cure is permanent. My health has been excellent ever since. I am glad to add my testimony to the merits of this wonderful restorative and trust that other sufferers may receive the same benefit from its use that I have."—REV. W. L. SINGLETON, Duluth, Ga.

SPOILED CHILDREN
USUALLY MAKE SICKLY MEN AND WOMEN.

The "spoiled" child usually makes a weak, sickly man or woman because such a youngster has its own way about diet and eats and drinks things that are unfitted for any stomach and sickness results.

"I was always a delicate spoiled child and my parents used to let me drink coffee because I would cry for it," says a Georgia young woman: "When I entered school my nervousness increased and my parents used to let me drink thought it was due to my going to school so they took me out again. But I did not get any better and my headaches got worse and weak and so that I was unfit for any duty. Sometimes I would go a whole day without any other nourishment than a cup of coffee."

"Last spring I had a bad attack of the Grippe and when I recovered I found that coffee nauseated me so I could not drink it and even a few swallows would cause a terrible burning in my stomach. It was at this time that a friend who had been much benefited by the use of Postum suggested that I try this food drink. I found it simply delicious and have used it ever since and the results speak for themselves. I have gained 12 pounds and my nerves are as steady as any one's."

"I consider myself well and strong and I make it a point now to take a cup of Postum with a cracker or two as soon as I come home from school in the afternoon. Postum with crackers or a biscuit makes my luncheon. It certainly saved my life for I know coffee would have killed me in time had I continued drinking it."

"I have a young girl friend, a stenographer, who declares nothing strengthens and refreshes her like Postum and she has a little oil stove in her office and makes a cup of Postum at noontime. I have recommended this wonderful beverage to many of my friends who know what it has done for me." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The investigation was private, but the inquiry developed the fact that there were four or five, if not more men, present, and that a crap game was going on. As near as could be learned some stranger was throwing the dice and Nutty was "fading" him, or betting him. Al. Phelps, a bartender, came in, it seems, and getting in the game also began finding the man with the dice.

This left Nutty out and a quarrel arose. He and Phelps were arguing when Monnt arose from the bed and took it up. Nutty is alleged to have said "You look like thirty cents to me," whereupon Monnt shot.

One or two of the witnesses are trying to claim that Nutty made a motion to draw a gun, but County Attorney Graves has evidence to the contrary.

When Nutty was searched about $1.50, some cards bearing the name of Metropolis firms and some cigarette paper and tobacco were found on him. There was no sign of a weapon.

The inquest will be held by Coroner Phel this afternoon and Monnt's examining trial will take place later in the week.

At press time the inquest had not been completed. The evidence was about the same as above, except that few seem to have remained when the trouble started.

Nutty's face is badly powder burned, showing that they were in close quarters at the time of the shooting.

SMALL BLAZE AT COURT HOUSE—The fire department was called to the county court house this morning just before noon to extinguish a small blaze in the basement of the building. What WALTHER'S PEPTONIZED PORT is and does

It is simply a good, honest, common-sense food tonic—a combination of rich Port Wine and Pure Pepsin,—nothing else. It is not a cure-all, or a medicine for acute or chronic diseases. It does not take the place of the doctor. It does strengthen weak digestive organs, tones and builds up the impaired, impoverished nerves, muscles and blood, and promotes a perfect condition of vigorous health. It is a valuable remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, and stomach troubles generally—for weakened vitality and impaired strength. It is a preparation of great worth for nursing mothers, tired women, old folks, invalids and convalescents. It is highly recommended by physicians and prescribed by them—both its constituents being of long demonstrated worth.
Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00.

AFTER TWO YEARS

A HORSE STOLEN IN GRAVES COUNTY IS LOCATED IN ILLINOIS.

An echo of the misdeeds of Will Lewis, colored, arrested here several weeks ago for selling Mr. Fletcher Terrell a stolen cow, and who proved to be a notorious horse and cattle thief, comes from Mayfield.

W. H. Leech, of Wingo, had a $200 mare stolen two years ago and Chief McNitt, of Mayfield, came to the conclusion that Lewis got it. He went to the Eddyville penitentiary a few days ago and saw Lewis, and Lewis is said to have admitted that the stolen horse had been sold at Golconda. A telephone message to Golconda revealed the fact that such a mare is there, and Mr. Leech and Marshal McNitt will go over today to claim it.

COL. WEISSINGER'S MISTAKE.
Elizabethtown News.

It is well enough that Col. Harry Weissinger has retired from the stump and it would probably have been better for the Democratic party had he never taken it. In his speech at Bowling Green he gave as his reasons why the voters should not support Colonel Belknap for governor, that the Republican candidate had never taken a chew of one of Kentucky's chief products and had never taken a drink of whiskey, another of our leading products. Colonel Belknap's abstinence in both particulars is to his credit and not to his discredit; Colonel Weissinger is the first man who ever proclaimed from the stump that chewing tobacco and drinking whiskey were accomplishments of gentlemen. It is true that many men indulge in both of these practices, but they are invariably classed among gentlemen, and especially Christian gentlemen as bad habits and are deplored instead of commended. The men who indulge in these small vices have never argued them as grounds for political support. If chewing tobacco and drinking whiskey is not a commendation to the voter, then it is absurd from a political standpoint to criticize a man for the non-use of them. We want to emphasize our condemnation of the foolishness of Colonel Weissinger, as in his zeal for our candidate he has stepped hard upon the toes of the moral people of the state who have no patience with an advocacy of whiskey drinking or the filthy habit of chewing tobacco. The News is one of the strongest advocates of Governor Beckham and the Democratic party, but it is not against Morris Belknap on account of his clean life and good habits. Let Colonel Weissinger go way back and sit down and keep his mouth shut.

FELL FROM WINDOW

Charles Swift Has a Close Call From Death.

Was Rescued By Means of a Ladder—Other Accidents.

Mr. Charles Swift, who rooms over the Singer Sewing machine office on Broadway near Third street, fell from his window last night and was badly bruised but fortunately not seriously injured.

There is a small blind alley under his window and he fell into this and as all doors to the business houses were closed, he was unable to get out for some time. His cries for air were heard by other roomers in adjoining buildings and they procured a ladder and got the unfortunate young man out.

He was bruised about the body and is pretty sore today, but the injuries will not amount to a great deal. He was fortunate in not breaking a leg in alighting but had the rare presence of mind to steady himself in alighting.

Dr. Robertson and Hoyer had two unusual cases to attend late Saturday. A traveling agent for the Illinois Central named Lamb got a fish bone in his throat at Lagomarsino's and the doctors were called to remove it, which they did. Mr. Gilbert Prossell accidentally swallowed a pin which stuck in his throat, and the doctors were called to extract that. Neither gentlemen was injured to any serious extent by the mishaps.

Mr. I. O. Walker, of the N., C. and St. L., and one of the most popular of the road's officials, was painfully hurt at Goose Pond, near Jackson, Tenn., by falling from a trestle. The distance is not far, or Mr. Walker would doubtless have fared worse. His injuries are not serious, his many friends will be pleased to learn.

He was brought to Paducah yesterday.

These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herdine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herdine, for several years. ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"Did you think you heard something moving outside?"

"No."

"You were saying something when I went out. Pardon my interruption."

Farnsworth gave the priest a searching and not wholly cordial look.

"You did not interrupt me, Father Beret. I was not speaking. Why are you so watchful? Are you afraid of eavesdroppers?"

"You were speaking recklessly. Your words were incendiary; incendia verba. My son, you were suggesting a dangerous thing. Your life would scarcely satisfy the law were you convicted of insinuating such treason. What if one of your prowling guards had overheard you? Your neck and mine might feel the halter. Quod avertat dominus." He crossed himself and in a solemn voice added in English:

"May the Lord forbid! Ah, my son, we priests protect those we love."

"And I, who am not fit to tie a priest's shoe, do likewise. Father, I love Alice Roussillon."

"Love is a holy thing, my son. Amare divinum est et humanum."

"Father Beret, can you help me?"

"Spiritually speaking, my son?"

"I mean can you hide Alice Roussillon in some safe place if I take her out of the prison yard? That's just what I mean. Can you do it?"

"Your question is a remarkable one. Have you thought upon it from all directions, my son? Think of your position, your duty as an officer."

A shrewd polemical expression beamed from Father Beret's eyes, and a very expert physiognomist might have suspected duplicity from certain lines about the old man's mouth.

"I simply know that I cannot stand by and see Alice—Mlle. Roussillon—forced to suffer treatment too heinous for an Indian thief. That's the only direction there is for me to look at it from, and you can understand my feelings if you will. You know that very well, Father Beret. When a man loves a girl he loves her; that's the whole thing."

The quiet, inscrutable half smile flickered once more on Father Beret's face, but he said silent some time with a shrewd forefinger lying alongside his nose. When at last he spoke it was in a tone of voice indicative of small interest in what he was saying. His words rambled to their goal with the effect of happy accident.

"There are places in this neighborhood in which a human being would be as hard to find as the dog that you and Governor Hamilton have so diligently and unsuccessfully been in quest of for the past month or two. Really, my son, this is a mysterious little town."

Farnsworth's eyes widened and a flush rose in his swarthy cheeks.

"Hing the dag!" he exclaimed. "Let it be hidden forever. What do I care? I tell you, Father Beret, that Alice Roussillon is in extreme danger. Governor Hamilton means to put some terrible punishment on her. He has a devil's vindictiveness. He showed it to me clearly awhile ago."

"You showed something of the same sort to me, once upon a time, my son."

"Yes, I did, Father Beret, and I got a load of slugs in my shoulder for it from that brave girl's pistol. She saved your life. Now I ask you to help me save hers, or if not her life what is infinitely more, her honor."

"Her honor!" cried Father Beret, leaping to his feet so suddenly and with such energy that the cabin shook from base to roof. "What do you say, Captain Farnsworth? What do you mean?"

The old man was transformed. His face was terrible to see, with its narrow, burning eyes deep under the shaggy brows, its dark veins writhing snakelike on the temples and forehead, the projected mouth and chin, the hard lines of the jaws, the iron gray gleam from all the features—he looked like an aged tiger stiffened for a spring.

Farnsworth was made of right soldierly stuff, but he felt a distinct shiver dit along his back. His past life had not lacked thrilling adventures and strangely varied experiences with desperate men. Usually he met sudden emergencies rather calmly, sometimes with phlegmatic indifference. This passionate outburst on the priest's part, however, surprised him and awed him, while it stirred his heart with a profound sympathy unlike anything he had ever felt before.

Father Beret mastered himself in a moment and, passing his hand over his face, as if to brush away the excitement, sat down again on his stool. He appeared to collapse inwardly.

"You must excuse the weakness of an old man, my son," he said, in a voice hoarse and shaking. "But tell me what is going to be done with Alice. Your words—what you said—I did not understand."

He rubbed his forehead slowly, as one who has difficulty in trying to collect his thoughts.

"I do not know what Governor Hamilton means to do, Father Beret. It will be something devilish, however—something that must not happen," said Farnsworth.

Father Beret, like most men of strong feeling who have been subjected to long years of trial, hardship, multitudinous dangers and all sorts of temptation, and who have learned the lessons of self control, had an iron will, and also an abiding distrust of weak men. He saw Farnsworth's sincerity, but he had no faith in his constancy, although satisfied that while resentment of Hamilton's imperiousness lasted he would doubtless remain firm in his purpose to aid Alice.

He listened in silence to Farnsworth's story. When it came to an end he began to offer some but half relevant suggestions in the form of indirect cross questions, by means of which he gradually drew out a minute description of Alice's prison, the best way to reach it, the nature of its door fastenings, where the key was kept, and everything, indeed, likely to be helpful to one contemplating a jail delivery. Farnsworth was inwardly delighted. He felt Father Beret's cunning approach to the central object and his crafty method of gathering details. The shades of evening thickened in the stuffy cabin room while the conversation went on. Father Beret presently lifted a punchbowl in one corner of the floor and got out a large bottle, which bore a mildeyed and faded French label, and with it a small iron cup. There was just light enough left to show a brownish sparkle when, after popping out the cork, he poured a draft in the fresh cup and in his own.

"We may think more clearly, my son, if we taste this old liquor. I have kept it a long while to offer upon a proper occasion. The occasion is here."

A ravishing bouquet quickly imbued the air. It was itself an intoxication.

"The brothers of St. Martin distilled this liquor," Father Beret added, handing the cup to Farnsworth, "not for common social drinking, my son, but for times when a man needs extraordinary stimulation. It is said to be surprisingly good because St. Martin blessed the vine."

The doughty captain felt a sudden and imperious thirst seize his throat. The liquor flooded his veins before his lips touched the cup. He had been abstaining lately; now his besetting appetite rushed upon him. At one gulp he took in the fiery yet smooth and captivating draft. Nor did he notice that Father Beret, instead of joining him in the potation, merely lifted his cup and set it down again, snacking his lips with gusto.

There followed a silence, during which the aromatic breath of the bottle increased its dangerous fascination. Then Father Beret again filled Farnsworth's cup and said:

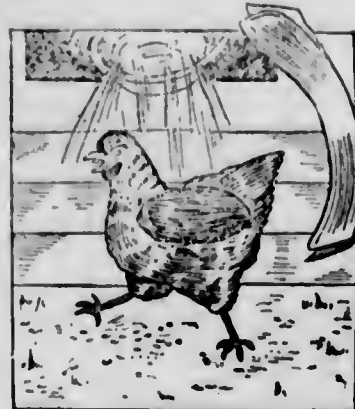

"Ah, the blessed monks little thought that their matchless brew would ever be sipped in a poor missionary's hut on the Wabash! But, after all, my son, why not here as well as in sunny France? Our object justifies any imperiousness of time and place."

Theatrical Notes.

In "Railroad Jack" there is a breeziness and freshness about almost its every movement, that is redolent of the unconfined American reigon where the story is laid. Altogether there is a charm around it. "Railroad Jack" will appear at the Kentucky October 21, Wednesday evening. Prices, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

The "At Cripple Creek" company, which will appear at the Kentucky tonight, comes fresh from recent successes in the large cities. The company played at Memphis the latter end of the week, and the newspapers of that city were warm in praise of the performance. The play contains a wide diversity of characters, and the contrasts are said to be sharply drawn.

A powerful drama of Western life entitled "At Cripple Creek" is scheduled for presentation at the Kentucky tonight. This play is by the well known author, Hal Reid, and is written in his happiest vein. The story is unconventional, brisk in action and strong in motive and appealing human interest. The scenes are laid in the Rocky Mountains and many novel effects and startling sensations are introduced.

Elizabeth Kennedy, who is starring as Rosalind in "As You Like It," tells the following story:

"An old Quaker was driving along a country road near Philadelphia one day," said Miss Kennedy, "when he happened to meet a young man driving in an opposite direction. As it happened there was not enough room for them to pass, unless one backed his buggy, which both refused to do."

"I'll not make way for you," said the young fellow with an expetive. "I think I am older than thou art," said the Quaker, "and therefore have a right to expect thee to make way for me."

"I won't," resumed the first. He then pulled a newspaper from his pocket and began to read.

"The Quaker pulled out his pipe, calmly filled and lighted it, and began puffing away calmly."

"Friend," said he, "when thou hast finished reading that paper I should be glad if thou wouldst lend it to me."

"It is needless to say that the young man gave up and let the old Quaker pass."

NOTHING DONE

RUMORS OF A MOB PROBABLY A HOAX.

Saturday night some one telephoned to the residents in the vicinity of Woodville, Ky., where Crockett Childress, the boy shot by Tom Hall, colored, Sunday a week ago, lies in a precarious condition, warning them that the negroes near Kevil and Maxon Mills were forming a mob to come to Woodville and lynch young Childress.

The white residents were greatly alarmed and procuring arms stationed guards about the Moss residence, where Childress is being kept, and were fully prepared for the mob, which failed to show up. It is thought that this report was started by some practical joker.

Captain Henry Bailey, of the city, telephoned to Woodville and offered the services of about 50 guns which are kept in the city hall, but the residents were well armed and prepared for any emergency.
